WWW.HPC2026.ORG

26 – 29 MAY 2026 | HOFBURG, VIENNA

WELCOME

On behalf of the National Organising Committee (NOC) of the International Energy Agency's Technology Collaboration Programme on Heat Pumping Technologies (IEA HPT TCP), we warmly welcome you to take part in the 15th IEA Heat Pump Conference to be held in the historical city of Vienna, 26-29 May 2026. The Austrian conference team looks forward to welcoming you to the event, which takes as its motto, Decarbonisation through Innovation.

The Heat Pump Conference 2026 will be the biggest of its type in Europe, with industrial representatives, policy makers and researchers discussing the latest advancements in heat pumping technologies. The NOC is working hard to plan and organise an exciting conference programme, including a technical programme, international keynotes, panel discussions, poster presentations, workshops, technical tours and social activities. The NOC greatly appreciates the assistance provided by the International Organising Committee (IOC) and Heat Pump Centre, the programme office of HPT TCP. We encourage researchers, policy makers, representatives from utilities and the public sector, manufacturers, and designers to present their most recent and novel developments in heat pumping technologies.

The conference in Vienna will be the 15th in a series of triennial conferences, and the second to be held in Austria: we are delighted to once again be the conference hosts after 42 years. Previous conferences were held in Graz (1984), Orlando (1987), Tokyo (1990), Maastricht (1993), Toronto (1996), Berlin (1999), Beijing (2002), Las Vegas (2005), Zurich (2008), Tokyo (2011), Montreal (2014), Rotterdam (2017), Jeju, Korea (2021) and Chicago (2023).

We look forward to having you here with us in Vienna.
